CARRANZA GIVES OUT A STATEMENT

Criticizes Action of A. B. C. Mediators.

TO AMERICAN PRESS

Announcement from Rebel Chieftain Is Given to American Press in General—Villa at Chihuahua en Route South.

El Paso, Texas, June 1.—A semi-official statement from Gen. Carranza's headquarters at Durango criticizes the actions of the A. B. C. mediators at Niagara Falls, and an announcement from Gen. Villa reiterating his allegiance as a military leader to Carranza, were the developments today of the Mexican situation here. Villa arrived at Chihuahua City from Torreon on his way from Juarez. Carranza was reported as having begun preparations to move by way of Torreon to Saltillo, where he will perfect his provisional government.

The statement from Durango, where Carranza's provisional government was established several days ago, was addressed to the press of the United States with a note to the effect that it had official sanction, although it was not a formal declaration. The telegram in part follows:

"The dominant sentiment of the Constitutionalists regarding the proceedings of the mediation commission at Niagara Falls is one of astonishment that there should be such an apparent lack of understanding on the part of that body, not only with regard to conditions in Mexico, but as to the attitude of the Constitutionalists regarding the mediators. This lack of understanding which is being to the commission themselves, but seems to be shared by a large portion of the American press as well as by the government.

"Rebels Are Conquerors.

"Judging from what has been published from day to day, the mediators appear to consider Gen. Carranza and his followers as a negligible quantity, scarcely worthy of attention, and who must agree to whatever conclusion the commission may reach. They do not seem to be aware of the fact that the Constitutionalists are conquerors, that they have inaugurated and carried almost to successful completion a revolution and that this means the establishment of a government entitled to recognition by the rest of the world. Recent successes of the Constitutionalists' army and others that are imminent, are conclusive proof that the power of Huerta is practically ended. His troops will not fight. They either run away or join their opponents with every sign of willingness.

"All that prevents the Constitutionalists from entering Mexico City today is the physical obstacle of the destruction of the railroads. With communication restored, which is being accomplished with rapidity the army would be in Mexico City in less than a week.

"Yet the Constitutionalists leaders point to the deliberations of the commission and the statements of the press as absolutely ignoring this situation. The peace commission even goes so far as to propose that the Constitutionalists must recognize whatever provisional government they decide to set up and to declare that they must be forced to recognize that government or be crushed.

"The Constitutionalists leaders are wondering how they are to be forced to do this in view of their present accomplishments, and by whom they are to be crushed if they decline to obey the commission. Calmly, too, the commission proposes that Huerta shall be permitted to be a candidate for the presidency in order merely to save his face. Do they think the Constitutionalists will consent to that any more than they will consent to recognize a provisional government constituted as the commission proposes, of one person selected by Huerta, one by themselves, and one, perhaps, but not at all likely, by the Constitutionalists.

"Will Recognize No One.

"No one, the Constitutionalists leaders point out, who has had any acquaintance with the objects and purpose of their movements, would propose that they would ever consent to have anything to do with any one heretofore connected with Huerta. The Constitutionalists make it plain beyond question they will recognize a government established only under the plan of Guadalupe at the triumph of the revolution. According to this plan the commander-in-chief of the Constitutionalists' army will be the provisional president of the Mexican republic while the elections are being verified and constitutional order is restored. They point out the fact that the conquerors are not usually wont to permit the conquered to dictate the terms of peace, which is practically what is to be asked of them by the commission.

"Constitutionalists are especially caustic in their comment on the proposal of the commission to take up the agrarian question and propose some form of settlement. They declare that this is a purely internal problem and that they will tolerate no outside interference in the settlement of the entire Mexican problem in a few months.

"Should any or all of the foreign nations persist to the conference at Niagara Falls decide, as a result of that conference, called to promote peace, to use force to secure acceptance of their plan, the Constitutionalists feel that it would present a situation so contradictory as to be ludicrous.

"The announcement that a basis had been secured for the solution of

TO VOTE ON REPEAL BILL BY SATURDAY

Constantly Before Senate After Wednesday.

CLAIM NINE MAJORITY

Those Advocating Repeal Announce Through Senator Simmons That Measure Will Receive Fifty-Two Votes on Ballot.

Washington, June 1.—Developments in the Senate today encouraged leaders in belief that a vote would be taken by Saturday night on the Canal tolls exemption repeal. Although an effort to secure unanimous consent for a vote at 4 o'clock Friday failed, Senator O'Gorman, opposing the repeal, announced that, beginning Wednesday, the bill would be kept constantly before the Senate until it was disposed of.

With the adoption of this plan, the bill will come up automatically at 1 o'clock each day and not be displaced by appropriation bills or other measures. During the day a conference between Senators Kern, Simmons and Lodge at which the forces for and against repeal were reckoned, led to an announcement by Senator Simmons that he expected the bill to receive fifty-two votes. Senator Simmons declared he did not include any senators counted as doubtful and if his prediction is fulfilled the repeal bill will have a majority of nine.

Senators Colt and Myers spoke in favor of repeal today Senator Catron opposed it. Senator Pittman introduced an amendment which would not secure the same rate of tolls rate on American coastwise ships or exempt them when necessary to prevent discrimination.

Simmons' Repeal Announcement.

In making the announcement that he believed the bill would receive 52 votes, Senator Simmons said:

"We do not include several Senators who I believe will vote for the bill."

So far no attempt has been made to sound out sentiment on the various amendments proposed or to discover if any arbitrary resolution could command the needed votes. Several Senators, it was said, favor arbitration, but will not vote for it until the repeal bill has been passed.

Senator Pittman in introducing his resolution empowering the president to reduce or remove tolls on American coastwise ships explained that he believed the Hay-Pauncefote treaty did not secure the same rate of tolls for all ships, but merely prohibited discriminations.

Senator Catron, of New Mexico, opposing the repeal, bill declared that the repeal would be a subsidy measure. He asserted Great Britain had no right to ask for arbitration of the toll question until it was seen whether there would be any discrimination against British ships in actual practice.

COLUMBUS COURT HOUSE MATTER AGAIN POSTPONED.

Until Location and Financing Are Voted Upon by People.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Whiteville, N. C., June 1.—After resolving itself into an executive session for the short space of 15 minutes, the Columbus county board of commissioners had the following motion, made by Mr. J. P. Council and seconded by Mr. R. E. L. Brown, ordered placed upon the minutes:

"Resolved, That, in view of public sentiment relative to building a new court house, that further action be deferred until after the question of locating and financing be submitted to the qualified voters and passed upon by ballot."

Commissioner Cox was absent from the meeting and the vote was, yeas, Messrs. Brown and Council, and nays, Messrs. Powell and Prigden.

Mr. J. P. Leitner, the architect, who was employed to draw the plans for the proposed building, was present and made a proposition to remodel the plans in line with the amount of the bond issue, which was $50,000, but this was not entertained after it was found that no motion made on the court house question would meet a tie vote in line with the vote on the foregoing resolution.

The agrarian question was received with laughter. The Constitutionalists do not recognize the right of mediators to rule concerning this subject, especially as the stand of the Huerta party on the matter was largely responsible for the unrest in Mexico.

"The Constitutionalists assert the foreign mediators have not been able to settle this question in their own right, and they are not likely to take it upon themselves to settle so grave a matter for a country of whose local conditions they must be ignorant. The leaders explain the agrarian problem is one for local settlement and that the only parties to the Niagara plan who understand local conditions are men held radically opposite views to those of the great majority in Mexico. The inference that Huerta might become a candidate for President at a future election is regarded as impossible. He is regarded as a criminal by the Constitutionalists and that he should be a candidate for anything except the guillotine or the electric chair is not considered seriously by them."

KEYSTONE OF THE A. B. C. PEACE ARCH THINKS MEXICAN TANGLE WILL BE SOLVED

JUSTICE JOSEPH R. LAMAR PHOTO © 1914 BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 1.—Justice Joseph R. Lamar, of the United States Supreme Court, is the dominant figure in the A. B. C. peace conference. Justice Lamar has from the first taken the leading part in attempting to straighten out the tangled affairs of the shot-riddled republic. If peace prevails it will be due mostly to his able methods of dealing with the delicate situation. He has been quoted as saying he had every reason to believe the negotiations would prove successful.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE UNIVERSITY IS BEGUN IN TENTH CONTINUES

Graduating Exercises and Oratorical Contest. After 450 Ballots Have Been Taken at Waynesville.

Chief Justice Clark Speaks at Inter-Society Banquet—Alumni Day—Distinguished Visitors Tomorrow.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., June 1.—The formal commencement exercises commemorating the 119th anniversary of the University of North Carolina were begun this morning at 10:50 o'clock when the members of the 1914 class marched into Gerard hall to conduct their closing class exercises. The venerable Dr. Battle, ex-president of the University, was present with the seniors and conducted a private prayer with them. At these exercises J. L. Chambers, Jr., read the history of the class, F. L. Webster presented the University with the class gift, and Oscar Leach, senior president, gave a farewell talk to his class.

After these exercises the hall was turned over to Acting President Graham, who conducted the Willie P. Mangum oratorical contest, an annual contest among members of the senior class for proficiency in oratory. The contestants were L. R. Johnson, C. S. Peel, F. R. Owen and J. A. Humes.

Final Class Exercises.

This afternoon at 5 o'clock, the senior class gathered under Davie Poplar to conclude its graduating exercises. The class statistics, the literary and testament, and the class poem were read by L. H. Ramson, J. T. Hatcher and E. J. Perry, respectively. After the pipe of peace was passed around, the campus was formally turned over to the junior class.

Judge Clark Speaks.

Tonight at 8 o'clock, the annual inter-society banquet was pulled off. The principal speaker at this banquet was Chief Justice Walter Clark, of Raleigh.

Distinguished Visitors Tomorrow.

Governor Craig, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, and Senator Simmons will arrive Wednesday with Secretary Commerce Redfield for the final day of commencement. Secretary Redfield will deliver the address on that day.

Yesterday the baccalaureate sermon was preached by Rev. Edgar H. Hill, of Chicago. At night the sermon to the Y. M. C. A. was preached by Rev. Richard Hogue, of Baltimore, Md., formerly of Wilmington and Chapel Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lord, of Wilmington, are attending commencement to witness the graduation of their son, William Lord, of Wilmington.

CROP CONDITIONS LOWEST IN YEARS

Department of Agriculture Issues Announcement.

STATISTICS OF COTTON

Crop in North Carolina About Two Weeks Late, Due to Dry and Cool Weather—Conditions Everywhere the Same

Washington, June 1.—The cotton crop condition of the country is the lowest since 1871, with the exception of 1903 and 1907, the Department of Agriculture announced today. It issued statistics showing the condition on May 25th as 74.3 per cent. of a normal or seven per cent. below the ten year average.

The low condition of the crop it was said, was due largely to the excessive rains and exceptionally cool nights in Central and Northeastern Texas, Eastern and Southern Oklahoma and Southwestern Arkansas which brought the condition percentage in those States down to 65, 68 and 79 respectively. In Texas many farmers were obliged to re-plant several times.

No estimate of the acreage planted in cotton will be made by the department until July 1st. Unofficial estimates of the acreage have placed it from 3.5 per cent. decrease to 1 per cent. increase.

In a detailed review of the conditions in the cotton States, the department makes favorable report on the progress of the crop in the heavy producing sections of Mississippi and parts of Louisiana, Oklahoma, Georgia, Arkansas and Alabama. In Texas says the statement, cotton is making one of the poorest starts witnessed in many years.

The Mississippi crop is probably ten or twelve days late. There is some complaint of weevils. But "taking the State as a whole," the department says, "conditions are excellent."

As to the Oklahoma the department says, the crop will average as much as three weeks late, while too much rain in lower sections had retarded cultivation in some of the regions. However, the crop is declared to be in excellent condition. While the crop is declared to be ten days to two weeks late in Alabama general conditions of cultivation are regarded as excellent. Cool weather has retarded growth somewhat and weevils are active in the southwestern portion of the State.

Promising in Texas.

By far the most promising conditions to be found in Texas, says the report, are in the Northwest where "rains have given the here asset of moisture in six or eight years."

In the greater part of the State, however, excessive rain fall has retarded planting and cool weather has caused poor germination. Much re-planting has been necessary. The report added:

"The rains seem to have ceased in most portions of the State and great activity is being witnessed in all the affected cotton area. Labor seems ample and if sunshine will prevail for a week or ten days, the crop can be well cared for."

The early planted cotton in Georgia, "consisting of probably 80 per cent. of the total acreage," is reported in good condition. "A small portion of the crop is not up, and will not come up until it rains," adds the report. The Georgia crop is estimated to be about a week late.

In North Carolina the crop is about two weeks late, due to dry and cool weather. The early planted cotton, however, is reported as in almost perfect condition.

Dry weather is held responsible for the backwardness of the crop in South Carolina where "probably 20 per cent." is reported as not up to stand. Dry winds have necessitated much re-planting, and a portion of the cotton standing is in almost perfect condition," says the report.

Louisiana conditions are declared to be "so far too dry, but, generally, the crop is satisfactory." Some late planted seed is not up and the crop averages about two weeks late, increasing danger from the boll weevil.

"Southwestern Arkansas," says the report, "has entirely too much rain. The fields in that section are foul with grass and weeds and a portion of the producing sections of the State conditions are favorable."

"In Tennessee only about three-fourths of the crop is up and the plant is perhaps only half as large as it should be at this time. It lacks vigor, the color being rather poor."

"Some sections of Florida have suffered from an hour, however, and weather bureau officials said tonight that much more moisture was needed to benefit growing crops."

MATTER NOW LEFT UP TO MEDIATORS

As to Acceptance or Rejection of Carranza's Agents.

EXPECT A DECISION

Officials in Washington Look for Decision from Mediators Hourly—Wires Kept Hot Between Capitol and Conference.

Washington, June 1.—American delegates to the Mexican mediation conference at Niagara Falls were in frequent communication today with the Washington government in relation, it was said, to the hitch in the negotiations which has arisen since the note was sent last week to the mediators, outlining the position of the Constitutionalists. It further was reported that the matter of recognizing or rejecting representatives of the Constitutionalists as participants in the Peace conference now was squarely up to the mediators themselves.

It was stated here that Gen. Huerta's representatives had regarded the development with a degree of favor as indicating hope for future peace. Their determination to leave the matter to the mediators, it was asserted, was reached by the Mexican delegates on the day that Mr. Urquidí represented Rafael Zuburran, arrived from Washington with the Carranza note.

That Justice Lamar and Mr. Lehmann have been urging recognition of Carranza seemed more apparent than ever in Washington tonight. Late last night a long communication was addressed to the American commissioners from the State Department after a conference between President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. After they had received it other communications passed between them, and the Washington government. President Wilson personally sent messages to his representatives, the nature of which was held in the strictest confidence. He still follows closely his policy of silence regarding the mediation proceedings.

"Is mediation progressing satisfactorily?" Secretary Bryan was asked.

"It can be said that the conference is progressing satisfactorily," he said, with a smile.

Whether mediation will come to naught in case the South American envoys should determine to reject all proposals for enlarging the scope of the conference, as including representatives of the Mexican revolutionists, was the uppermost subject of discussion here today. Many held that the original proposal for a protocol to be drawn up by the United States and Huerta's representatives would be adhered to, and that the United States would then await developments in Mexico.

Are to Rush Campaign.

Others inclined to the view that the Constitutionalists would proceed with increased vigor to the physical overthrow of the Huerta regime, capture the government at Mexico City, and then protest that there was nothing to mediate.

Some definite announcement from the mediators regarding the problem is expected here hourly. Representatives of the Constitutionalists conferred again today, but they insisted that no news had been received to alter their position.

That the American government is refusing to issue balance papers to ships laden with ammunition for any Mexican port was disclosed today.

Some vessels it is reported, though, have shipped with arms from New York to ports in various Central American countries, the shipments later being re-cleared for Mexican ports.

Administration officials uniformly have declined to make any definite statement as to the policy regarding the admission of arms into Mexico.

Regarding Gen. Funston's action in leaving lines upon the German lines in Ypiranga and Bavaria, Secretary of War Garrison said that there might be an appeal by the German government to the Secretary of State.

Other cargoes of war material are commonly understood to be destined for Mexico, for Huerta, some from Japan and some from England. It is understood that extensive trans-shipment is beginning to be made in the West Indian islands, for the benefit of the Constitutionalists.

We relate that the lines against the German steamers a dispatch from General Funston today announced that he simply flatly executed his order to enforce the Mexican law in imposing fines.

The German contention in the matter is that the arms and ammunition on the two liners were originally ordered from Germany and France by the Madero government, and that the German government recognized General Huerta as the lawful successor to Madero, and consequently, that Huerta was the proper consignee.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, was among Secretary Bryan's callers today. He asked the Secretary to use his influence in behalf of German interests in the State of Guadalupe.

PARAGRAPH ADDED TO CLAYTON BILL

To Specifically Legalize Trade and Farmers' Unions.

IS ADOPTED BY HOUSE

While Designed Only to Clarify Existing Law, Labor Leaders See Victory in Adoption of the Measure.

Washington, June 1.—Trade unions and farmers' unions would be specifically legalized in their existence and declared not to be combinations in restraint of trade by a paragraph which the House today incorporated in the Clayton bill to supplement the anti-trust laws.

Although it is designed only to clarify existing law, organized labor leaders say the final passage of this amendment will mark the culmination of a fight waged by them for 14 years—since the passage of the Sherman anti-trust law, for exemption from prosecution under the laws against monopolies and restraint of trade. On a vote to perfect the labor provision the House was recorded 207 for and none against.

At adjournment the provision declares that "nothing in the anti-trust law shall be construed to forbid the existence or operation" of labor unions or farmers' cooperative associations, or to forbid or restrain members of such organizations from "carrying out the legitimate objects thereof. Supplemental to this provision, the House adopted an amendment proposed by Representative Webb, in charge of the bill, and agreed on by organized labor reports and the administration which would provide that such organizations and their members shall not be "held or construed to be illegal combinations or conspiracies in restraint of trade under the anti-trust law."

Although the provision was passed without a dissenting vote, there was considerable debate as to just what the effect of the legislation would be. Democratic leaders declared that the provision would give labor that exemption it desired and asserted officials of organized labor had endorsed the phraseology. Progressive Leader Burdette and others asserted that it would be years before the courts would define finally just how far the exemption went and what it meant.

Amendment Defeated.

Amendments proposed by Representative Thomas, of Kentucky, and McDonald, of Michigan, to make the proposed exemption more definite, were voted down. Democratic leaders declaring that a more specific exemption would run counter to the constitutional inhibition against class legislation.

A cause to legalize such conferences and agreements among railroads as are now subject to control of the Interstate Commerce Commission, also was passed. The section over-protects the jurisdiction of the commission over such agreements and confirms existing laws against joint agreements to maintain rates.

Representative Perkins, of Oklahoma, unsuccessfully sought to insert a provision making oil and gas pipe lines and hydro-electric power transmission lines engaged in interstate commerce common carriers under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Determined to hasten consideration of the measure, Democratic leaders pressed the detailed debate and kept the House in session tonight without even allowing a recess for dinner.

The holding company's section was taken up and a substitute proposed by Representative Volstead, of Minnesota, was defeated.

Sensor Newlands, chairman of the Interstate Commerce committee, which has charge of the drafting of anti-trust legislation, announced to the Senate today that he expected to make this legislation the unfinished business before that body after it votes on the Panama tolls exemption repeal bill. The committee has not finished its work on the omnibus anti-trust measure framed by its subcommittee. It will decide within a few days whether it will report this omnibus or lay before the Senate a measure merely creating a trade commission.

AUTHORIZE SALE OF TWO BIG BATTLESHIPS.

Mississippi and Idaho to Go to Greece. Built Another Dreadnought.

Washington, June 1.—The Senate today amended the naval appropriation bill so as to authorize the sale of the battleships Idaho and Mississippi and the construction of a modern dreadnought with the money. Greece is understood to be the prospective purchaser.

Earlier in the day the Senate concurred in the House provision that one of the two new battleships provided for in the bill be built in government navy yard, but refused a few days whether it will report this omnibus or lay before the Senate a measure merely creating a trade commission.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT NEWBORN YESTERDAY.

Government's Storage Warehouse Is Destroyed.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newborn, N. C., June 1.—Damage to the amount of five or six thousand dollars was caused here today by the destruction of the government's storage warehouse on Union Point; also several thousand dollars' worth of lumber owned by Clyde Eby.

A series of accidents and low water pressure hindered the fire fighters, and they were unable to cope with the situation, and only by hard work was the nearby plant of the Meadows Veneer Company saved.

A DAILY HOME RUN

SAM CRAWFORD. Samuel Crawford visited with President Comiskey before a recent White Sox-Tiger game in Chicago. The two were seated in the private office of the South Side magnate, chinning. The subject was the trip around the world, of course. It will be remembered that Sam was a member of the White Sox band for those few months. "Well, you seem to be hitting them pretty good this year," said Commy. "Yep," admitted Crawford. "You know I think that trip around the world did me a lot of good. Know where I think I was benefited most?" "None," from the Old Roman. "While I was the sickest. I don't believe that any fellow was ever as sea sick as I was. It's my private opinion that no man ever spent as much time bending over the ship's rail. But say, it certainly did clear my eye." "Well, don't prove it this afternoon," from Comiskey. "I'm going to do my best to prove it," from Samuel. He did. He swatted four drives and scored three runs. One of his hits was a terrific home-bagger that was just over the heads of the infielders. There was so much force behind it that it was just over the heads of the outfielders, too. It didn't drop an

BIG MASON AT ROCKY MOUNT

Noted Y. M. C. A. Worker Preaches to Railroad Shop Men During Lunch Hour

(Special Star Correspondence)
Rocky Mount, N. C., June 1.—Under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. there are being held this week short noon-day services in the A. C. L. shops. Saturday at noon several hundred men listened for twelve minutes of a half hour's dinner time to an able address and sermon by "Big Mason," the speaker who is conducting services each night at the Y. M. C. A. For a man who has never attended before these shop services for men, it is a most impressive sight. In their working frogs and some of them enjoying their noon-day puff and others a chew, they gathered about the speaker seeking seats in pews, on the floor, about the dismantled engines of the shop and all listened with great interest to the message that the speaker brought to them.

That this noon-day preaching, which has been going on for almost a week and will continue for longer, will redound to influence and good is apparent, and message brought by a deep thinker, who has a great power of delivery and who gets down and touches men, could not but mean greater things. Mr. Mason, familiarly termed and better known as "Big Mason," for he towers above a six-footer as to make him look like a Brownie, is an able Y. M. C. A. worker, and while he is not of the preacher type and more as "one of the other fellows," his work for religious causes will have a long effect in Rocky Mount with her men.

Chairman Ten Million League
Rev. H. C. Bobbitt, the popular former pastor of the Christian church in Rocky Mount, has been called as National Chairman of the Ten Million League. The Ten Million League is a human welfare organization for the purpose of massing the temperance sentiment of the United States, and throwing its influence and vote with the dominant political party which will put in its platform a plank calling for nation-wide prohibition by a constitutional amendment.

Mr. Bobbitt's work will be to organize each state and oversee the organization of each county by precincts or wards. This is a tremendous task and will occupy the entire time of a large force from now until the national election in November 1916.

BACCALAUREATE DAY AT ELON COLLEGE

Dr. Tagg in Morning—President Harper at Night.

(Special Star Correspondence)
Elon College, N. C., June 1.—Sunday was baccalaureate day at Elon. Dr. F. T. Tagg, editor of the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, Md., preached the sermon at 11:30 A. M. Dr. Tagg is one of the most distinguished scholars and pulpits of the Methodist Protestant church. His place of leadership with his church is attested by his editorship of their national organ, a position he has filled for many years. His editorials are righteous and wield great weight in religious realms.

Dr. Tagg knows the student life and the student heart. He based his remarks on Acts 7:22—"And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds." His theme was "Preparation for Life-Work." He showed by the illustrations of the "Moses" life that intellectual preparation is not all sufficient for the best service, for after he had received his diploma from the university of that land of scholarship, culture, and learning, he had to add forty years of heart preparation before he was able to do the work divinely assigned him.

At the evening service, obedient to time-honored custom in Elon's annals, President Harper gave his baccalaureate address to the senior class. President Harper's theme treated the ultimate value of education and was worded "The Contributions of College Life."

The feature of the third day of Elon's Commencement was the annual evening devoted to the representatives of the three literary societies. Two speakers were chosen from each society. The young ladies' society, the Psi Chi society, was represented by Misses Beatrice Mason, Nashville, N. C., and Patti Preston, Belew Creek, N. C. The Philologist society for men was represented by Messrs. W. C. Purcell, Haver River, N. C., and R. K. Hancock, Straits, N. C., and the Clio Society, also for men, had as its orators Messrs. J. L. Farmer, News Ferry, Va., and E. T. Cotten, Dendron, Va.

SUPREME COURT ADJOURNS.

Final Batch of Six Opinions Delivered Yesterday.
(Special Star Telegram.)
Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—The North Carolina Supreme Court adjourned for the term this morning after delivering a final batch of opinions in six cases. The list follows:
Peanut Co. vs. Atlantic Coast Line, Martin county, reversed. Standard Trust Co. vs. Commercial Bank, Guilford, new trial; State vs. Lance, Henderson, no error; Gouge vs. Bennett, Mitchell, appeal dismissed; Johnson vs. Whilden, Graham, modified and affirmed, costs against appellant; Chastain vs. L. & N. Railroad Co., Cherokee, affirmed.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Heals Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., sold hundreds of jars of Hokaia and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scales and even bleeding itching have found relief in Hokaia.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokaia should give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases should be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal sized jar today at the very low price of 25 cents, and with every package goes J. Hicks Bunting's guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory.

FOR MILITARY ENCAMPMENTS

Coast Artillery Will Come to Fort Caswell—Second Infantry Goes to Augusta—Others.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—Adjutant General Laurence W. Young of the North Carolina National Guard makes an important announcement as to the military encampments this summer as follows:
The Second infantry, Colonel Rodman, is to participate in the joint maneuvers of the regular army and militia at Augusta, Ga., August 3 to 13.
Troops A and B will also participate in the maneuvers of the Ninth division.
The Third regiment will go into camp at Camp Glenn July 6th and the First regiment July 20th.
The Coast artillery will go to Fort Caswell, below Wilmington, August 3-14.
A practice march for the field hospital corps No. 1, Asheville, and Ambulance Corps No. 1, Canton, will be held near Asheville at a date yet to be fixed.
Full equipment for all organizations has been received here and is being sent out as rapidly as possible.

FROM DUNN TO SWANSBORO

Two Townships in Upper Sampson to Vote $65,000 Bonds for New Railroad.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Clinton, N. C., June 1.—A number of leading citizens of Upper Sampson came before the county commissioners in session here today and procured an order for an election on a $65,000 bond issue in Newton Grove and Westbrooks townships, in Sampson county, to assist in the extension of the Central Carolina railroad from Lillington to Swansboro, by way of Dunn, Newton Grove and Mount Olive.

It is said the bond issue is sure to carry, as a large majority of the qualified voters signed the petition asking for a vote.
The northern part of Sampson offers the best field for a railroad in the State. It is a wonderfully fine section, in both soil and timber.
W. J. Edwards, of Sanford, who has associated northern capitalists with him, is said to be engineering the project. The people between Clinton and Dunn are determined to have a railroad and it now looks like they are going to get one.

DEATH AT ACME.

Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Edwards Passes.
(Special Star Correspondence.)
Acme, N. C., June 1.—This community was shocked when the death angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hector H. Edwards, Friday evening, and took their little daughter, Margaret Carolyn. Margaret was only 18 months old and the younger of two lovely, sweet little sisters. She had been sick for only a short time, and it was not realized that the little one was so ill.
Her passing is made peculiarly sad because her little playmate died in Margaret's mother's arms and in the same room at the same hour, only six days before. She was the eight-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osburne. Little Margaret's body was taken to Bennettsville, S. C., and laid to rest in the family burying ground.

LAURENCE IRVING, SON OF FAMOUS ACTOR, AND WIFE LOST ON EMPRESS OF IRELAND

MR. and MRS. LAURENCE IRVING
Among the passengers on the ill fated Empress of Ireland, which sank in the St. Lawrence river with great loss of life, were Laurence Irving, son of the late Henry Irving, the famous actor, and his wife. Mr. Irving followed his famous father in a stage career and was returning to England after an engagement in the Dominion. His wife was Mabel Hackley, an actress. Laurence Sydney Brodribb Irving was the second son of Henry Irving. He made his first appearance on the stage in 1893. He was in his illustrious father's company in 1900-04. He first toured with his wife in 1904-05. He wrote several works on the drama.

CRAIG PARDOONS DENTON

Tarboro Man Has Four Months on the Roads for Violating the Prohibition Law.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—On recommendation of the trial judge, the solicitor, the county officers, the prohibition advocates and many others of Edgecombe county, Governor Craig grants a pardon for R. H. Denton, the well known Tarboro man, who has served four months of a 12-months sentence on the Edgecombe roads for violating the prohibition laws.
He was operating a livery stable and search and seizure officers found a great quantity of barrels of whiskey in the stable, which it was claimed in the defense had been received on consignment by another party and was held by Denton for an amount due him while other securities were being put up.
The pardon is conditioned on good behavior. In his reasons, the Governor enumerates a great number of persons or prominent position in the county who recommend the pardon on the ground that under the circumstances the prisoner has been sufficiently punished. There was no opposition to the pardon.

Mr. C. M. H. Hawkins Dead.
Mr. Colin McKinzie H. Hawkins, widely connected and esteemed citizen of Raleigh, died this afternoon at a local hospital, age 67 years. He was a native of Franklin county, a son of the late Dr. W. J. Hawkins, and married Miss Janet Hogg, a daughter of the late Dr. Thomas D. Hogg. She survives him. The deceased was for several years, right after the war, in business in Baltimore. Later he came to Raleigh, was an officer in the old Raleigh Gas Company, and subsequently in the insurance business. For 20 years he has been unable to do any business on account of paralysis.

WILSON NEWS BRIEFS.

Refreshing Rains in County Saturday—Death.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Wilson, N. C., June 1.—Alberta Burton, the two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Matthews, died Saturday morning after a brief illness. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. M. Bradshaw, of the Methodist church.

Farmers from various sections of the county in town Saturday reported rain and consequent improvement in crop prospects. Wilson county has not suffered as keenly from dry weather as other counties but the rain was needed.
Dr. Tom Person, injured in the Atlantic Coast Line wreck several weeks ago, is able to be out of the hospital and his large circle of friends are pleased.

Charters Issued

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—A charter was issued today for the Dan Hotel Co., Salisbury, capital $100,000 authorized and $300 subscribed for building and operating a modern hotel.

ter.

seems to be afraid that it made a flat failure.

Big Business has proven to the country that some railroads could be run better for the stockholders if Big Business never had tried to run them
according to the Wall Street rules.

A Georgia paper says "Tom Watson wants a new trial." Has Tom ever succeeded in any trial that he has made since he got in the limelight for the purpose of keeping it busy?

We are satisfied that the River of Doubt is where it always has been.
The guides in the Brazilian wilderness have known for years where it is and they will show it to everybody
who wants to discover it.

Georgians have been accused of voting in the South Carolina primaries.
At the same time, they must have been in the minority, judging from the fact that the South Carolinians always elected their candidates.

A new weekly publication has made its appearance at Raleigh. It is to be known as the "Golden Rule" and is to be the organ of the prison reform movement in North Carolina. If there is any real prison reform movement in North Carolina, why has it not used the press of the State? Every newspaper is for prison reform.

The "Law and Order League," of Denver, has inaugurated a movement
for the recall of Judge Ben Lindsay,
who has made himself and Denver famous. He is a great friend of the Bull Moose, but no doubt the Colonel never advocated the recall of judges
with the least thought that a man
like the Denver judge would ever have the crowd after his goat.

Says the New York World: "The Presbyterian General Assembly refuses to advance from its old undiscriminate attitude on Sunday pastimes, but a rational public sentiment has ceased to wait on Presbyteries." Doubtless, that is the reason we run across a public sentiment that seems to be going from bad to worse. When the Presbyteries adopt the worldly view there will be no day to remind people that it is a day set apart for rest and sober reflections, if not worship.

Mr. Elbert Hubbard recently delivered an address before the Richmond Advertising Club, and the central idea of his talk was that there should be a "business manager" for the United States. He declared that if he had his way he would take from Big Business some captain of industry and turn over to him the job of running the country. That would suit Big Business, too, for that "captain of industry" knows where he would go for advice. As a matter of fact, the country is anxious for a divorce from Big Business on account of its relations with the New Haven and Union Pacific railroads, not to mention
numerous other correspondents.

THE COLONEL'S FUSION SCHEME

The Progressives of New York have invited Colonel Roosevelt to become the leader of the Progressive party in that State, regardless of who is to be the nominee for Governor. The choice of leadership under such circumstances might have two serious results—one for the party, the other for the leader. In the first place, the leader who is named under such circumstances and trusted absolutely,
might want to dictate the party's nominee for Governor. On the other hand, if the party should nominate a man for whom the leader could not stand and whom he might repudiate,

he would not abide by the voice of the party. Either one of those results is quite possible, and those who know the colonel regard the first one as the most likely.

The Colonel dictated to the G. O. P. its nominee for President in 1908.
Everybody knows that if it had not been for President Roosevelt the Republican party never would have nominated Taft. If the Colonel would assert such dictatorial power over his old party as to the Presidency, he would not hesitate to assert his own personal preferences over his new party when it comes to the smaller function of dictating a Governor for the party.

However, anybody knows that Colonel Roosevelt is such a dominant figure in the Progressive party that they are satisfied that it must bend to his will or break with him. That would mean a split and away would go the party. In fact, in 1912, the Republican party refused longer to be dictated to by the Colonel, so he just brought it a swack across his knee
and broke it to flinders.

Isn't that true? You know. So does the Progressive party in New York know it. So does the Progressive party in the United States know it.
Therefore with a leader like Colonel Roosevelt, is not the Progressive party making a bid for his domination
when it invites him to be the leader?
That party seems to be willing to be a one-man's party, but the two old parties with all their mossbackism
and faults do not belong to any one.
They split up now and then, as their history shows, but no man has yet been able to hitch either to his cart
very long at a time.

We are glad to say that the Democratic party has many dominant leaders. President Wilson leads by his achievements and by suggestions and appeals to the good sense and wisdom of the party, but no man is the party's dictator and no man can transpire over it just a little bit. However,
just at the present time the Republican party is a hulk adrift, liable to make port under its own steam or be towed in by Colonel Roosevelt. The Colonel is after the old party and the signs are that he will get a big haul
if it he does not get the whole hulk.

Just now he is working the rabbit foot on the G. O. P. in New York, and from a New York World editorial we note that the present outlook is for
"fusion" on State matters, but "no amalgamation." The World does not see much difference, and its opinion is that "fusion would give Mr. Roosevelt a chance to get back into the Republican party through the side door family entrance." That is about the way the Colonel will work it, and it looks as if he is working it successfully so far.

We observe that The World knows the ultimate result of "fusion." In North Carolina in 1894, 1896, and 1898,
there was fusion between the Republican and Populist parties. The Populists were absorbed and there is no
Populist party any more. The G. O. P.
took it over. Watch the repetition of some more history.

THE STATE CONVENTION AND ITS DUTY.

The Democratic State Convention
meets in Raleigh next Thursday.
There is nothing exciting in the air,
but some have anticipated that conservatives and progressives may lock horns. Over what? We don't see much to fight over. The party leadership is so nearly agreed on general principles and policies that there are not enough differences to bring on an interlocking of horns.

The so-called progressives have no
very radical ideas that need cause much disturbance. As we see it, the principal progress for the party to make in North Carolina is to provide itself with a better method of making its nominations. The gravest danger threatening the party is in the several slack twisted and universally unsatisfactory methods of making nominations. The party might go to pieces on that score sooner or later,
but the State convention should not let it do so. No doubt it will commit itself to the best legalized method of making nominations, else lay up more trouble for itself in the future.

We see in the Third and Tenth Congressional districts the result of the ten-year-old-boy methods used recently in an attempt to nominate candidates for Congress. On account of the very crudeness of the primaries, the fight in both districts will be carried to the floor of the Congressional conventions, with what bitterness and result, we are soon to see. We hope everything will be smoothed out all right, but it must be admitted that things are woefully
fangled in the Third and Tenth districts.

This mix-up about making nominations is history repeating itself. In the Wilmington district four years ago, we got a dose of it, the result
being that the party had two nominees for Congress, Representative H.
L. Godwin and the Hon. Oscar L.
Clark. Finally, after the State committee arbitrated the situation, a soap-box primary resulted in the return of Mr. Godwin. He is in Congress yet, and is again the party's nominee under a system that is utterly absurd on the face of it. That is nothing against Mr. Godwin, but it is a serious reflection upon the organic intelligence of the party.

How long will Democrats be made
tired and disgusted by such things?
We must not forget to revert to the very first time Mr. Godwin received a nomination in this district. He was not even a candidate, and got in as a dark horse. The convention was split up over the candidates who went to the convention with their respective support, but the convention finally picked up a new and untired man and made him the party's nominee. He has managed to stay in under that system, and that it to his credit, the fault being the party's, if there is any. A "dark horse" nomination may happen sometimes to turn out all right, but there never was a "dark horse" nomination that came from the people. Such nominations came from politicians who got tied into a knot and cut loose by some sort of dicker or trade, or just break loose so

the worn out delegates can get home.
It is to Mr. Godwin's credit that he is himself in favor of a legalized primary. Who is afraid of such a safe method of making nominations?

It should not be overlooked that county nominating methods are in the same category as those of nominating in the State at large and in the Congressional districts. Let us note that Columbus county recently held one of those "preferential primaries," and the dissatisfaction down there is so great that the county executive committee has requested all the nominees to resign so the whole thing
can be done over.

Concerning this matter of making
the people's nominations, the question is shall the party go on making itself ridiculous in the eyes of its adherents and supporters by indulging in the farce of making nominations?

It is said that the politicians have been heading off legalized direct nominations primaries, but if that has been the case, they ought to know
by now that they are playing with fire.

The State convention which is to meet next Thursday ought to fully realize that the biggest party issue
at this time is a safe-guarded nominations primary law which will make tangles impossible and throw contests into the courts instead of into party councils to be threshed out to the detriment of the party. The principle thing the State convention has to do this time is to do its duty
instead of locking horns.

CORRUPT PRACTICES IN ELECTIONS.

The Columbia State a few days ago
printed the sections of the South Carolina code bearing on elections.
While that esteemed contemporary recalls the provisions of the laws it also makes the timely remark that
"it is not unlikely that persons guilty of efforts to commit frauds in the primary elections this year will be prosecuted."

If they are not prosecuted, what good is the law for punishing those who violate and nullify the elections of the people? The State does well to urge those persons active in politics to watch out for violations and take measures to bring violators to punishment. Certainly somebody ought to do so, but probably "persons active in politics" are not so anxious as the public to see that the elections are fair? It is what every good citizen ought to do.

The South Carolina laws, as well as those of North Carolina, provide for fines and imprisonment or both,
for frauds in connection with elections, and examples made of violators
is the only way such corrupt practices
can be stopped.

STEEL MAKING AT PORTS.

The question of the eligibility of the ports for blast furnaces seems to be getting practical recognition, and the availability of the ports for receiving ores and converting them is being demonstrated at both New York and Philadelphia.

The construction of two 400-ton
blast furnaces in New York harbor reminds the Merchants' Association of that city that the metropolis has many advantages over Pittsburgh for steel making. The World refers to that view of the Merchants' Association and backs it up by saying that
"freight rates for assembling lake
ores as well as Cuban, New Foundland and all foreign ores, favor New York against Pittsburgh, while the vast Lake Champlain deposits are in New York's natural field."

With New York's advantages for steel plants being recognized, it is safe to say that the port of Wilmington will some day be recognized for its location within easy reach of Cuban and Venezuelan ores and because of its advantageous position as a distributing point by water and rail.

CURRENT COMMENT.

What is needed in this country, according to Senator Borah, is a party which will "gather up the common sense, the common honesty, the common patriotism, the common courage and the common righteousness of the common people of this country, and organize it into a militant, progressive, disciplined force for legal and social justice, and do it all under the Constitution and laws of this blest old republic." The Senator doesn't ask much of a party. No party will come completely up to his requirements, but the Democratic party is the best "bet" at present.
It has done more for "legal and social justice" in a year than Mr. Borah's party did in twenty years.—Raleigh
News and Observer.

Wake Forest men all over the state
will be interested in the recent ruling of the board of trustees of that college abandoning the old practice of giving to ministerial students their tuition and financial aid from the college
and substituting a system of loans;
the ministerial students will hereafter be required to give their notes, both for money received and for tuition.
However, after they have spent five years actually in the pulpit, or if they die within five years after graduation, the notes automatically become void. Wake Forest was originally founded as an institution for education of Baptist preachers, and, though the ministerial class at present comprises only about 20 per cent of the student body, the denomination has ever kept in mind the original purpose of the school, and has never charged a prospective preacher or a preacher's son a cent of tuition.—

The local newspaper men in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce are arranging to give the North Carolina editors fine welcome on the occasion of the Press Convention for three days from June 24. Capt.
John W. Harper has tendered the services of the steamer Wilmington
for an entire day, which means that Harper will have charge of the visitors on a trip to Southport where a luncheon will be given by the citizens, and after that a call at Fort Caswell and a run out over the bar to sea. As a matter of course, a day under Harper's chaperonage will be the feature uppermost in the minds of the party booked for it, but Colonel Cowan of the Evening Dispatch,
who has the privilege of the hand,
is figuring on other features for the pleasure of the visiting newspaper men. The State press is so well acquainted with Wilmington and Wrightsville that it would be unnecessary for The Observer to write suggestively as to what is to be expected.
It is altogether probable that Secretary Sherrill will have more responses
to the roll call than for years past.—
Charlotte Observer.

The North Carolina Republicans at their Greensboro meeting manifested
a spirit of giving which, if consistently followed, may result in once more uniting the party. The Observer is not one of the papers that has been inclined to regard the split
in the Republican ranks of this State
as anything promising permanency,
and the satisfaction each faction got out of the other in the last election was about of the character to encourage a disposition to call it quits. The Taft vote in North Carolina was 29-139, while Roosevelt polled 69,130, a total of 98,269, or a percentage of 40.31 against a percentage of 59.27
for Wilson. The Republicans very well recognize the fact that divided to such an extent as they have been their party constitutes no resistance
whatever to the Democratic party.
For this condition the leaders of the Republican party have been to blame.
Brainy men have been indulging in child's play with the machine of party interests and it might be said, party principles, for in the bitterness of their family strife principle has been thrown to the winds. While the Republican have been at each other's throats the Democrats have gained no
recruits, and the Republican party again united would be a stronger opposition party than before. The Observer sees these preparations for the melting pot process with feelings of pleasure, rather than of alarm. The course of Democracy in North Carolina since the Hand to get the Republican ranks shows more than ever the need of a strong opposition to keep the Democratic party on its good behavior. It has been having a disposition toward indifference. The prospect of facing a reunited Republican party under harmonious leadership once more cannot fail to have a beneficial effect upon the Democracy of the State. And this is spoken as a word in season.—

COUNCIL ASKED TO BOW TO WILL OF THE PEOPLE

Mass Meeting of 500 Endorses Full Health Budget.

Standing Committee of 25 to Present Matter to Council and to Carry to Courts if Necessary—Representative Gathering.

Moved by a common impulse to stand together in a calm but firm determination to support of what they conceive to be a matter vital to the present and future welfare of the community, nearly 500 of the most representative citizens of Wilmington assembled in a mass meeting at the court house last night and without a dissenting voice adopted a resolution calling upon City Council to reconsider its action in reducing the budget for the health department for the ensuing year, and to pass the budget as approved by the Board of Health and recommended by the Board of County Commissioners. The chairman of the meeting was empowered to appoint a standing committee of 25 to appear before City Council immediately and prosecute the matter to the desired end, even to seeking relief in the courts if necessary.

Though courteous invitations had been extended personally to every member of City Council to be present, and all had been assured that they would be given every opportunity of stating the reasons for their action in the matter of the health budget, a roll call of the members of Council was answered only by Mayor F. Q. Moore and Councilman C. C. Loughlin, both of whom supported the health budget as approved by the board of health. Councilman Loughlin, however, stated that he had no vote on the question. Councilman B. A. Merritt, T. W. Wood and W. F. Jones, constituting the majority voting to reduce the budget, were not present, and Councilman D. M. Chaswick, Jr., who stood with Mr. Loughlin in support of the health budget, was also absent.

One fact stood out supreme above everything else at the meeting—that all present were unanimously in support of the Board of Health and its policies. This cannot be denied, for invitations from the chair and from the floor, asking that if there were any present who thought that Council had acted wisely in reducing the budget they state their reasons for such belief, brought no response. Every speaker proclaimed no uncertainty as to the terms that he thought the appropriation asked for by the Board of Health was a reasonable one, and that to lower it meant a false economy, and that the lives of the citizens of Wilmington shall not be jeopardized for a matter of a few thousand dollars. And every speaker who voiced himself was cheered to the echo by the meeting.

Representing as it did the leading men from every walk of life, including bankers, merchants, railroad officials, manufacturers, physicians, lawyers, mechanics, carpenters and laborers, the meeting stands as an unrefutable expression of the sentiment of the citizenship in regard to the health work as it has been conducted here.

The resolution adopted by the meeting concedes to the three members of Council who voted for the reduction of the budget, the sincerity of their belief that it was a measure of economy, but it calls upon them to shift the responsibility of the decision of this question to the shoulders of the citizens present at the meeting, and to bow to the expressed will of the people as represented at the meeting.

The Resolution.
The resolution as adopted embodies suggestions from Messrs. J. Gilchrist McCormick, M. F. H. Gouverneur and J. Allen Taylor, and is as follows:
Resolved, that the citizens of Wilmington in mass meeting assembled are strongly in favor of an efficient health administration, and while conceding that the three members of Council in refusing to concur with the County Commissioners in approving the Health Budget as recommended by the Board of Health was doubtless actuated by a spirit of economy, or which no imputation of their motives is made, nevertheless believe that the Council erred in judgement, and that the welfare of the community demands a budget fully as large as that recommended.

Resolved, second, that this meeting approve the budget as recommended by the Board of Health, and request the City Council to yield their individual views in deference to public sentiment by promptly passing the budget as originally presented.

Resolved, third, that the chair appoint a committee of 25 representative citizens to present the matter to the City Council, and be a continuing committee in this cause until a full amount of the budget is made available.

It was left with W. P. Stacy, Esq., who presided at the meeting, to the committee, and he stated that he would probably do so this morning. The committee may await the regular meeting of Council tomorrow, to appear and present the matter to the body, or it may be decided to ask for a special session of Council today.

Meeting Called to Order.
The mass meeting was called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by J. A. McNorton, Esq., and upon motion of Mr. W. A. McGirt, W. P. Stacy, Esq., was called to the chair, while Mr. D. H. Howes, Jr., was named as secretary.

At the request of the chairman, Mr. J. A. Allen Taylor stated the object of the meeting. He reviewed the events leading up to the meeting, pointing out that Council had cut down the budget for the health department as recommended by the Board of Health and approved by the Board of Education by more than $5,000, in the face of protests from a large body of citizens who appeared before Council to ask that the full amount asked for by the Health Board be appropriated.

Mr. Taylor showed how the Board of Health is constituted by law and pointed out that its members were selected in order to be free from political influence. That body he went on to say, had the power to provide for the health administration, but Council had undertaken to usurp the powers of the Board of Health and to control the personnel

TO THE STATE CONVENTION SEASHORE OPENS TODAY

Delegates Appointed Yesterday, by Chairman Little—Senatorial Convention Here Saturday

Delegates from New Hanover County to the State Democratic Convention which meets in Raleigh Thursday have been appointed by Chairman J. W. Little, of the County Executive Committee, the list having been completed yesterday afternoon. The county is entitled to a representation of 13 delegates, the figures being based on the vote for Governor Craig in 1912.

The delegates as announced by Chairman Little are as follows: Jno. D. Bellamy, W. B. Cooper, W. P. Stacy, K. G. Burgwin, D. C. Love, J. G. L. Gieschen, M. W. Jacob, J. O. Rilly, L. Manson, W. E. Springer, J. W. H. Fuch, L. Stein and Jos. W. Little.

Alternates are appointed as follows: T. W. Davis, S. A. Matthews, L. Clayton Grant, Frank Herbst, C. W. Woodward, J. A. Price, J. F. Head, Jackson Green, E. Cooper, W. E. Lawson, B. H. Stephens, H. R. Aiken, and J. A. Orrell.

The senatorial convention for this district, composed of New Hanover and Brunswick counties, will be held in the court house here Saturday at noon, the call having been issued by Chairman Little of the New Hanover Executive Committee and Mr. Geo. H. Bellamy, chairman of the Brunswick county Democratic Executive Committee.

At this convention Mr. W. B. Cooper will be nominated as the Democratic Candidate for the State Senatorship from this district. Mr. Cooper received a majority of the votes in the convention in Brunswick and the primary in this county. He was opposed by Jos. W. Ruark, of Brunswick.

BIG INCREASE IN WATER.

Enormous Consumption of Water by People of City the Past Week
Counsellman Loughlin, in charge of the Water and Sewerage Department of the city, yesterday gave out figures from a report to him from Mr. John Sweeney, engineer at the water works plant, which show an enormous increase in the consumption of water from the city water mains for the week ending Sunday. The number of gallons pumped during the week was 23,312,000 gallons and for the same week last year, 13,519,000.

The increase for the week was an increase of 1,253,143. Mr. Sweeney thinks that large quantities of water are being wasted. Counsellman Loughlin thinks that meters should be installed and this will doubtless be done.

Marries Sunday Morning.
Mr. C. L. Sterne, of this city, and Miss Mary Jeffries of Durham, were married Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the rectory of the Church of the Good Shepherd, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Thomas P. Noe. Mrs. Sterne formerly resided in this city and had been visiting here for some time. Mr. Sterne is shop foreman at the Hanover Iron Works. Their many friends will extend best wishes for a happy life.

Young People Married.
Many friends will be interested in learning of the marriage of Miss Cora Belle Bergman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Bergman, of this city, and Mr. S. H. Davis, of Fayetteville, on Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of the First Baptist church, the ceremony being performed by Dr. J. H. Foster. Both are popular young people and have many friends in the city and elsewhere. The groom is an electrician.

A Half Holiday on Friday.
The following stores of the city will be keeping their doors open every Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock for a half holiday until September 1st: A. D. Brown, C. H. Fore & Co., C. W. Pollock, Combs, French, Milliner, Parlor, William Goodman, H. Taylor Schiller, C. Henry Haar.

of the health administration, which the law gives it no right to do.

The meeting, Mr. Taylor said, was for the purpose of giving those present an opportunity to express themselves as to whether they wished to be guided in their attitude toward the health work in the city and county by three members of the City Council, who, however capable they may be in their own business or profession, are not possessed of the scientific knowledge to understand the needs of the health work, or by the knowledge and experience of the Board of Health, with two of its members being the most prominent physicians in the city, who have made special study of the needs of the community in this line, and furthermore backed by the opinion of health experts in the United States government, who have unqualifiedly endorsed the character of the health work accomplished here.

Mr. Taylor said in closing that he thought it would be a good idea if personalities be avoided, and that better results would be accomplished by speaking with calmness and determination, while criticism confined only to the facts in the case.

The chairman pointed out that under the legislative enactment combining the City and County boards of health, provision was made that the Board of Health submit to City Council and the Board of County Commissioners each year a detailed budget of the amount deemed necessary to carry on the health work in the county and city, and that of this sum it was provided that 75 per cent be paid by City Council and 25 per cent by the Board of County Commissioners. The act made no provision, he said, for a settlement that might arise over any difference of opinion as to the amount needed, or the refusal of either of the bodies to contribute its share of the amount asked.

Dr. Bolles Called On.
Dr. C. F. Bolles was called on for a few remarks. He stated that he was not there espousing the cause of any man, but was fighting for a measure. The Board of Health, he said, after careful consideration, had found that it could not do the necessary health work in the community with a less amount than was asked for, and it could even use from $10,000 to $20,000 more to advantage. However, it was realized that the tax rate here is high, in view of the many public improvements that have been recently made, and only the amount that was positively the least that could be gotten along with was asked for.

He said that he believed that it would be the fairest kind of economy to cut down the health budget. The bulk of the diseases to which man is

COMMISSIONERS URGE COUNCIL TO NAME PLAN

Stand Pat on Position as to Health Budget.

Refuse to Concur in Reductions Suggested by City Fathers—No Action on Incinerator Matter. Monthly Reports.

The three members of the City Council who voted to shelve the health budget for the coming year were urged yesterday to suggest some plan satisfactory to them by which the difference between the City Fathers, the Board of Health and the Board of County Commissioners may be considered and definitely decided, in a formal resolution adopted by the County Commissioners at their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon after that body had directed the clerk to inform the City Council that the commissioners could not see their way clear to concur in the reductions in the budget of the Board of Health, suggested by them.

Commissioner McGirt opposed the resolution, which was introduced by Commissioner Yopp, giving as his reason that he did not feel that the three members in question, because of their evident prejudices and biased opinions on the matter, were capable of suggesting any plan that would be satisfactory to the commissioners. The resolution refusing to concur in the reductions suggested by the City Council was introduced by Commissioner Moore and was adopted unanimously.

Both the health budget as adopted by the City Council and the ordinance recently enacted to have the city take over exclusively the management of the incinerator were sent to the Board of Commissioners by Capt. T. D. Meares, in his official capacity as city clerk. The commissioners referred the incinerator matter to a special committee composed of Messrs. Yopp, McGirt and Moore, who are to report at the next meeting which will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the board having taken a recess until that time.

All of the commissioners were present at the meeting and presided over by Chairman Willard. A record of the proceedings was kept by the clerk, Mr. W. A. Williams. Reports were received from Mr. R. A. Burnett, county superintendent of roads, and Mr. P. H. Raspberry, superintendent of the county farm. Only a few routine matters were taken up and the session was a short one, lasting only an hour.

Want Amicable Method.
Following is the resolution introduced by Commissioner Yopp requesting that the three members of Council favoring reductions in health budget, suggest some plan for settling the matter:

"Whereas, The act of the Legislature establishing the consolidated Board of Health of the city of Wilmington and the county of New Hanover provides no way by which a difference of opinion between the City Council and the Board of County Commissioners may be settled, and

"Whereas, There now exists between the City Council and the County Commissioners a difference of opinion as to the amount of money which should be appropriated for the use of the Board of Health, and

"Whereas, Twelve of the fifteen members of the City Council, the Board of Commissioners and the Board of Health have agreed upon the amount needed to carry on the health work in the city and county, and the Board of Health, being a majority of the Council, have different views, and

"Whereas, It would be adopted by which these different views may be reconciled, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the three members of the City Council above referred to be urgently requested to suggest some plan satisfactory to them by which the matters of difference between the City Council, the Board of Commissioners, and the Board of Health may be considered and definitely decided."

Should Not Hamper Work.
The resolution of Commissioner Moore, refusing to concur in the reductions in health budget suggested by City Council, is as follows:

"Whereas, The work of sanitation and improvement of health conditions in New Hanover county has attracted such widespread attention, resulting in extensive and valuable activities by the United States Government and other outside and philanthropic agencies to improve the health conditions of our community, and

"Whereas, The result of this work is so plainly shown in both the mortality and morbidity statistics of our county, therefore,

"Be it Resolved, That in the opinion of this board it would be most unwise to hamper in any way this great work which is accomplishing so much for the indigent and suffering portion of our population.

"That the City Council be respectfully informed that this board cannot see its way clear to concur in the reductions in the budget of the Board of Health suggested by them."

On motion of Commissioner McGirt it was decided to improve 17th street from Market to Bellevue cemetery.

After some discussion the Commissioners decided to wait until fall before boring any more deep wells, and in the meantime will ask the Board of Education to aid in bearing the expense where they are located near school houses. The discussion was precipitated by a motion of Commissioner McGirt that a well be driven at Wrightsville for the benefit of truckers and others who use the road in that vicinity. Mr. McGirt opposed the action of waiting until fall because he thought that the cost of taking the forces off the roads at this time when the weather is favorable for building roads.

The matter of building concrete bridges was also discussed, but no action was taken. All the members thought that the county ought to have them, but doubted the advisability of taking the forces off the roads at this time when the weather is favorable for building roads.

A communication from Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, requesting that the county

TO HONOR PAST MASTER

Special Communication of Grand Lodge of Masons of State Here This Evening.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina, A. F. & A. M., has been called in special communication to convene in the Masonic Temple hall, this city, by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, John T. Alderman, Henderson, N. C., this evening at 8:30 o'clock, for the purpose of presenting a Past Grand Master's Jewel to Past Grand Master James H. Robinson, a member and Past Master of Wilmington Lodge No. 12.

The presentation on behalf of the Grand Lodge will be made by Past Master E. S. Martin, of St. John's Lodge No. 1, who was the private secretary to Past Grand Master Robinson when he was Grand Master for the years 1877-1878.

The Grand Tiler, Mr. Robert H. Bradley, will arrive from Raleigh this morning with the Grand Lodge paraphernalia, etc., to arrange for this occasion.

COMMISSIONERS URGE COUNCIL TO NAME PLAN

(Continued from Page Five.) Superintendent of health be allowed his expenses to attend the annual meeting of the health officers of the State to be held in Raleigh on June 15th, was read and it was voted to appropriate the money necessary for this purpose.

A communication was read from Mr. S. R. Ellis, requesting that there be a correction in the amount assessed against some property owned by him at Winter Park, and was referred to the county auditor.

Capt. E. P. Bailey appeared before the board to ask that they make their usual annual appropriation of $600 to the Wilmington Light Infantry. The county auditor and treasurer was directed to pay this amount in two installments of $300 each, the first to be made now and the other six months later.

Money to pay a substitute Recorder $4 a day for a period of two weeks while the Recorder takes a vacation was appropriated. On the approval of the county commissioners, K. C. Sidbury, Esq., was granted a refund of $7. A claim by R. H. Jarman for the hire of a team while collecting taxes in Harnett township was disallowed. On recommendation of the county superintendent of health, J. W. Hall, of Delgado, was relieved of the payment of poll tax because of physical disability.

Commissioner Moore reported that he had not recently received any complaint as to the drainage at Winter Park on account of the dry weather that has prevailed. Chairman Willard suggested that it would be a good idea if the residents of that section would get the necessary pipe to connect with a ditch along the road, that the county would do all the work necessary to get rid of the water, if the pipes were laid. This matter will be taken up by the road committee.

Road Work for May. Following is the report of Mr. R. A. Burnett, county superintendent of roads, of the work done during May: "To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of New Hanover County."

"I hereby make my monthly report for the month of May, 1914. "Number of prisoners previously reported, 108; number of prisoners received during month, 25; total number of prisoners in camp this date, 94. Cars of rock from mine, 6; hauled by truck, 145 tons.

"Camp No. 2 is in charge of E. L. Eakins. This camp is stationed about nine miles from the city on the Federal Point road. They have at this camp 14 men and eight teams. They have built 700 yards of road bed, 40 feet wide; have moved 3,027 cubic yards of earth, and have had one cart hauling straw along road.

"Camp No. 3 is in charge of J. A. Perry. This camp is stationed about one-fourth of a mile from Sea Gate on the Greenville Sound road. They have at this camp 14 men and 10 teams. This camp has completed 250 yards of rock road at Wrightsville Sound and have cleared 2,200 feet of right-of-way on the Greenville road and have completed 1,200 feet of road and laid 100 feet of pipe.

"Camp No. 4 is in charge of Will Gurganus. This camp is stationed at the eight mile post on the Scott's Hill road. They have at this camp two teams and 10 men and have built 400 yards of road and put in 68 feet of 20-inch metal pipe.

"Camp No. 5 is in charge of G. C. Orr. This camp stays at the permanent camp at night. They have in this camp four teams and seven men. They worked over 1 1/2 miles of the Scott's Hill road and are now putting oil on the same road, commencing at 17th and Market streets. They worked two days at the 10-mile post on the Castle Hayne road.

"Camp No. 6 is in charge of T. F. Brewer. This camp stays at night at the permanent camp and they have in this camp 10 men and two teams. They have put in 140 feet of pipe at Winter Park and have cleaned 2,900 yards of ditch and also cleaned ditches along the Castle street road, and are now working the Masonboro road at Whiskey Creek.

Report of County Farm. The report of Mr. P. H. Raspberry, superintendent of the county farm, is as follows: "Board of Commissioners, New Hanover County."

"Gentlemen:—I hand you herewith my report of the county home and farm for the month of May."

"We have at the home six white inmates and 14 colored, making a total of 20. There are 35 prisoners. "Have had no deaths to report the past month, and the health of both the inmates and prisoners was good. The sanitary conditions of the home is good and we strive to keep the surroundings in a healthy condition. Considering the long dry spell of weather, our crops are coming along fairly well and we have a good stand of corn. Our truck crops are suffering on account of drought, and we are not able to do much this year in this line because of this long dry spell of weather. We are furnishing the camps with vegetables and forage as usual."

THEATRICAL

One of the most tempting menus of the week will be served up in the usual dainty style at the popular photoplay house today, consisting of three high grade dramatic features, and an up-to-now, rattling good comedy.

Heading the list is a big Victor drama, "The Call Back" in which J. Warren Kerrigan is featured in the leading role, supported by Bees Meredith, Vera Sisson and M. B. Robbins, all stars. It is a great story told in a way that only the Victor star player know how to tell it in movies, and will strike a responsive chord in Wilmington today. The finder of a pocketbook is pursued as a thief, and the many exciting climaxes make this one of the most interesting movies of the times.

A big Nestor drama, "The Man Within" comes second, and is featured by the great work of Miss Dorothy Davenport in the leading role, supported by Wallace Reid, Clarence Burton and Phil Dunham—you all know them. A sense of gratitude on the part of criminals is often used by writers of drama and romance as redeeming quality in the felon, and in the present instance it is a fugitive from justice upon whose head a price of $2,000 has been set by the State. "In the Spider's Web" is the third big dramatic offering on today's extra big bill, and is one among the best, the story of a man who neglects his wife, and the spider's web into which it leads him.

The comedy is supported by a big Rex offering, "A Boob There Was," and the story is about the "boob there was" who had never before looked at her teeth without blushing. However, he traded his cow for an auto, and won the girl.

Miss Mary Pickford Today. Today and tomorrow theatre-goers of Wilmington will be offered an exceptionally brilliant event, one that costs much in order for them to behold it, but which will cost them but a tiny sum to witness. Today and tomorrow the Grand Theatre, the people's favorite amusement palace, will offer American's foremost moving picture actress, Miss Mary Pickford, in a magnificent production of the noted tale, "Tess of the Storm Country," by Grace Miller White.

The production is made by the Famous Players Company and is presented by no less a distinguished theatre manager than Mr. Daniel Frohman. Theatre-goers of this city should also note that the wonderful mammoth moving picture production will be offered them for the tiny price of 10 cents admission, the smallest ever charged; not only in North Carolina, but anywhere. The same film has been presented in Charlotte for 20 cents admission, but the Grand offers it for half such cost. The Grand has made special arrangements for these two great days and the Wurlitzer orchestra will present a programme of special music, both overtures and incidental numbers.

"Tess of the Storm Country" is a great dramatic success and Miss Pickford does the greatest piece of acting she has ever done in the title role of this wonderful film. In order to afford every one ample chance to witness this great film, the price of 10 cents admission, at the Grand today at 11 a. m. and continue until 11 o'clock tonight.

MR. BRAND CONSPICUOUS IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY. One of the conspicuous men of the Southern General Assembly of the Presbyterian church at Kansas City was Mr. R. A. Brand, of this city, fourth vice president and freight traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast Line. Mr. Brand has long taken an active part in church work and is a ruling elder in the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington. He devotes to the interests of his church the same conscientious efforts that have made him a master in the business world and is recognized as a leader in his denomination.

The following words of appreciation of Mr. Brand were written from Kansas City by Dr. J. F. Matheson, assembly commissioner, to The Star for publication:

"One of the conspicuous men of the Southern General Assembly in session here, is Ruling Elder R. A. Brand, of your city. Mr. Brand was one of the nominees for Moderator, and but for this being an Assembly with educational institutions most conspicuous he would have been hard to defeat. It was fitting that for this assembly, the head of Davidson College, Dr. W. J. Martin, should be Moderator, and he is presiding with his accustomed ability. "But it will gratify many to know that as this is being written at the request of Dr. Martin, Mr. Brand is in the moderator's chair, presiding with the skill and grace characteristic of him. There are many expressions of admiration for Mr. Brand and of satisfaction with a church that produces such an officer, who is so vigorous in religion and in business."

MR. HAYNES SAYS END OF THE WORLD IS APPROACHING.

Evangelist Sees Indications of It in Signs of Times.

In a strong address in which reference was made to the Mexican broglio, the strike between capital and labor, the high cost of living, the decline of personal piety, and frenzied finance, these things were marshalled in foreboding array and set before a big audience as indications of the nearness of the end of the world by Evangelist Carlyle B. Haynes last night at his Chautauqua tent at 11th and Market Streets under the subject of "The Sign of the Times." And that his audience was strongly moved was evident from the intense interest which was manifested by everyone present to the very end of the address.

Emphasizing his remarks with vigorous gestures, Mr. Haynes said: "To all men of common sense and candor the fact is open and obvious that the age in which we live is peculiar in its financial, religious, moral, intellectual, scientific, mechanical, national, physical and social aspects. And in many of these things the Bible student is able to discern the signs of the coming of the Saviour, the signs of the times."

"The Scriptures plainly foretell great national troubles, calamities, and convulsions, which shall all terminate in the great day of God Almighty. All these troubles, tumults and strifes are to be closed up by the personal coming of the Son of God to judge and punish and destroy his foes. Tonight Mr. Haynes subject is, "Spiritualism—what is it?"

WOMEN FROM 45 TO 55 TESTIFY

To the Merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life.

Westbrook, Me.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial."

—Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine. Manston, Wis.—"At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since."

—Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Manston, Wis. The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled in such cases. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Rheumatic Throat Is Common Trouble Should Be Treated in Blood To Prevent Recurrence.

There are successful gargles that stop soreness in the throat, but to prevent their incessant return, the blood must be put in order. The best remedy is S. S. S., as it influences all the functions of the body to neutralize the irritating and poisonous and to stimulate their excretion through the proper channels. Rheumatic sore throat is a dangerous indication, as it means that the blood is loaded with more uric acid than the kidneys can excrete, and may thus lead to serious general disturbance. The action of S. S. S. stimulates cellular activity. It prevents the accumulation of irritants in local spots. It enables the arteries to supply quickly the new red blood to replace worn-out blood. For this reason uric acid that finds the throat an easy prey to its breaking-down influence, is scattered and eliminated. In other words, S. S. S. prevents chronic conditions by enabling all the mucous linings of the body to secrete healthy mucus. Influence is shown in a marked improvement of the bronchial tubes, whereby the huskiness of voice with thick, grayish expectorations is overcome. S. S. S., well diluted with water, means a blood bath. It gets into the blood, and once gets into the blood, S. S. S. is free of all minerals and contains ingredients wonderfully conducive to well-balanced health. You can get it at any drug store, but do not accept anything else. There is danger in substitutes. S. S. S. is prepared only by The Swift Specific Co., 628 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Our Medical Dept. will give you free instruction by mail on any subject of blood disorders. Write today.

The Day of Fake Advertising is Passing

"As a matter of self-protection, as well as protection of the public, we are downright glad to see the dawn of honest advertising. The store that has honest merchandise at right prices need not hesitate to tell the truth. For example, we never had the least difficulty in advertising Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes for men. They contain so much that is superlatively good that the plain truth about them is the simplest kind of a story. But after all they tell their own story better than cold type can tell it. LAST YEAR'S "FINDS" CALCULATED TO SET HOT PACE

By ODGERS T. GURNEE.

NOW that the major league baseball season is well under way and the tumult and shouting of the Federal invasion have died down, the fans will have an opportunity to look over the youngsters who are striving to make good in the big show and pick their favorites. Last year was a poor one as far as numbers were concerned, but for ability the "finds" of 1913 surpass those of many other seasons.

before the season was many days old. Russell was probably of the greatest service to his club, with Demaree and Boehling running a stiff race for second honors. Bush came into his own in the world's series.

A number of other boxmen who showed promise of latent ability were James of the Braves, Aitchison of Brooklyn, Pierce of the Cubs, Schauer and Schupp of the Giants, Marshall of the Phillies, Cooper of the Pirates, Doak of the Cardinals, Galla of the Senators, Brown, Houck, Shawkey, Pennock and Wyckoff of the Athletics; Wellman and Leverenz of the Browns and Culp of the Naps.

The star performer among the other positions was "Rabbit" Maranville of the Braves. The diminutive shortstop fitted into the Boston team wonderfully and was the fielding sensation of the league.

The other infield and outfield stars who first shone forth last year were: Ray Chapman of the Naps, Fritz Maisei of the Yanks, Red Smith of Brooklyn, Stengel of Brooklyn, Whitted of the Cardinals, Leibold of the Naps and George Burns of the Giants.

In this group Maranville surpassed all the others in value to his club, although Maisei and Burns did yeoman service.

A few others there were who showed flashes of major league form and have been kept for another tryout on the big time. Principal among them are: Mann, Braves; Schmidt, Braves; Fisher, Brooklyn; Mollwitz, Cubs; Berghammer, Reds; Thorpe, Giants; Burns, Phillies; Acosta, Senators; Gossett and Gilhooley, Yanks, and Agnew, Browns.

New Faces On English Polo Team

THERE is a surprise in store for American poloists, according to the latest advices from Madrid, where the English team is practicing for the international matches. The team which is to meet America has been picked and two of the four men selected are practically unknown in this country. The lineup as decided on at present is: Captain H. Tomkinson, No. 1; Major F. W. Barrett, No. 2; Captain Vivian Lockett, No. 3; Major C. Hunter, back.

In picking this team such good players as Captain Matthew Lannowe, Captain E. Palmes and Captain Ralston were eliminated. Captain Ralston is out of it because of sickness. The chief difficulty was to find No. 1, and, though Captain Palmes was the favorite for the position, he had to be dropped because he was a man that it was found hard to mount. Captain Tomkinson, who has been chosen to make the attack on the American goal, was a leading figure in English polo last year. He played No. 2 on the Quiddunnes, which won the open championship of England, and also was in the same position for the Fifteenth Hussars, which won the interregimental cup. He is a hard hitter, with good direction, and is considered the equal of Captain Cheape, who was the advance man last year.

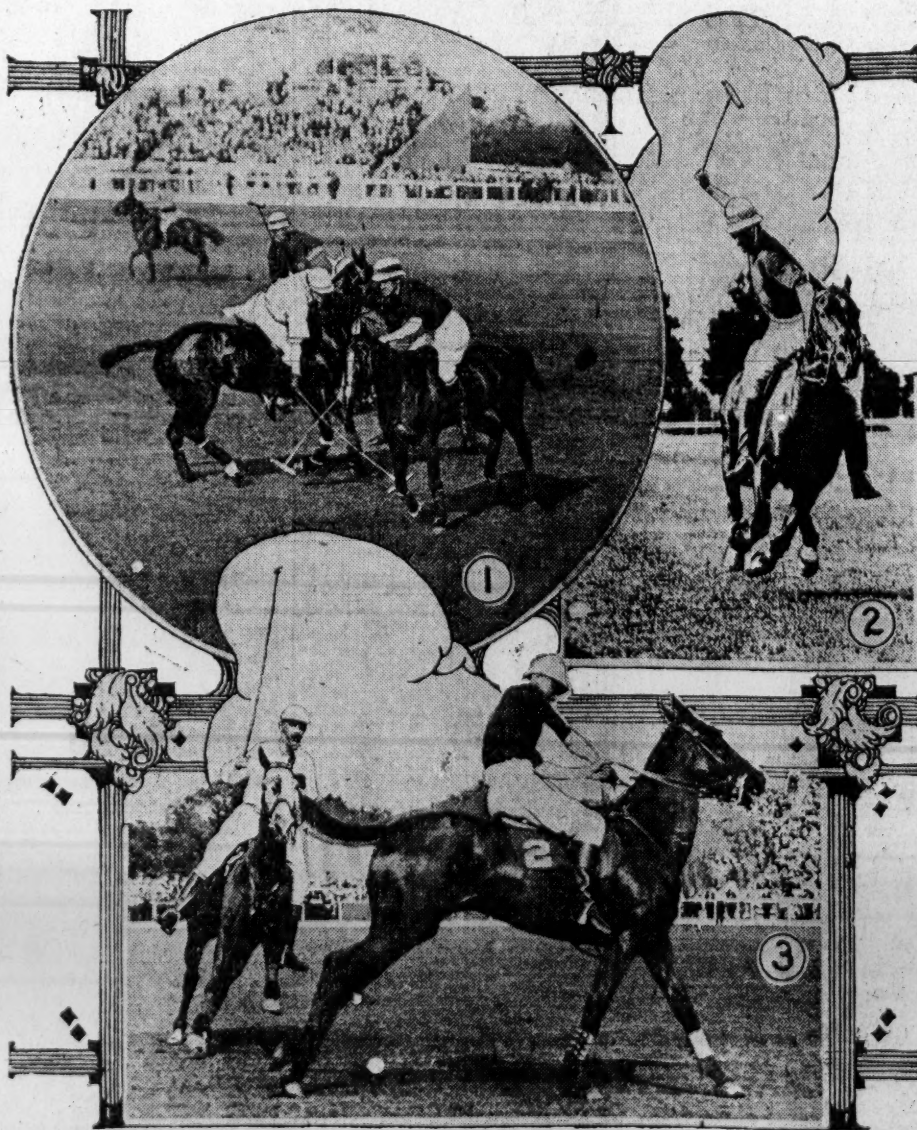

Perhaps the most important part of the lineup is the change from No. 3 to No. 2 of Major F. W. Barrett, the most brilliant player of the 1913 English season. This change was made because the practice showed that the team was particularly well off in back. Captain Vivian Lockett, who played back on the visiting four last year, has been moved up to No. 3, and his place as guardian of the goal turned over to Major C. Hunter. Major Hunter is another man not well known here, but he made a sensational back for the Tigers' team in the big matches last year. According to the critics on the other side, Major Hunter was the whole Tiger team.

As selected, the English team practically becomes one of two forwards and two backs. If no change is made it will offer a novelty so far as the direction of play goes, for Major Barrett, who is slated for the captaincy, thinks that he can fulfill his duties while playing No. 2, instead of being at No. 3, which is his regular place and also the place usually occupied by the team captain.

As soon as the internationalists reach England a match will be arranged against the old Cantabs, which is considered the trial horse of English polo. On this team will be Captain Haselton, No. 1; F. M. Freahe, No. 2; W. S. Buckmaster, No. 3, and A. L. Tate, back. The men will have two weeks' practice at Hurlingham before leaving for this country. The trial matches will be played under the direction of Sir Douglas Haig, the newly elected chairman of the Hurlingham club.

There is considerable satisfaction abroad over the forwardness of the invaders. The practice in Spain has brought the team to a stage that was not reached last year until just before the international matches. With the

THE candidates for America's polo team are working out at the estate of George J. Gould at Lakewood, N. J., and intense rivalry is manifested in the race for positions. It is certain that the two Waterbury brothers, with Dev-eaux Milburn will make up three-quarters of the team. Both Harry Payne Whitney and Louis Stoddard have given up the game for the time being, leaving Malcom Stevenson, Foxhall Keene and Rene Le Montagne to fight it out.

Nap Lajoie Never Kicks Over Salary

NAPOLÉON LAJOIE never has been known to complain regarding the salary paid him by Charles W. Somers, but it is quite likely that he wishes that during all the time he has worked for the Naps their liberal owner had offered him a bonus, such as Joe Jackson has been proffered this season. The Carolina clouter, according to a rumor, is to get so much if he hits above .400, so much if he hits above .375, and so much if he hits above .350. Never having hit below the last named mark since he has been in the American league the chances are that J. J. will earn at least one of them.

Look what Larry would have had, however, in the way of extra remuneration had his contract called for more money in the event of his hitting above .350, .375 or .400. In 1901, working for Connie Mack, the king piled up an average of .422, still the highwater mark for the American league and only approached by Ty Cobb in 1911, the year he was accounted the most valuable player in the younger organization by the Chalmers jury of newspaper experts. The Georgian hit .420 that year and .410 the next, Joe Jackson having an average of .408 in 1911, and Charley (Duke) Farrell an average of .404 in 1903.

During the two years of his employment by Somers, Larry has hit better than .375 and in five years better than .350. Cobb has been above the last named mark six times, Hans Wagner five times, Joe Jackson four times, Tris Speaker twice, Ed Deleahanty twice, Olaf Henriksen twice and Mike Donlin twice.

JOHNSON AFTER GREAT STRIKE-OUT RECORD.

THERE are a number of remarkable things which may happen during this summer's baseball season, but one which is sure to come off is that Walter Johnson will pass the 1,500 mark in strikeouts unless he abandons the game or breaks that $100,000 arm.

The man who won the automobile for being the most valuable player in the American league last season has, since he entered last company, claimed 1,458 strikeout victims. No other major league hurler has in the seven consecutive seasons from 1907 to 1913 amassed this total. In fact, only three other men have fanned over 1,000 ball players in this length of time. They are Ed Walsh, Nap Rucker and Christy Mathewson.

"Big Ed" Walsh, the spitball star of the White Sox, has been Johnson's closest rival for the title of strikeout king. The Chicagoan has sent 1,405 batters back to the bench since he has been a contemporary of the Senatorial star. Walsh twirled in only sixteen games last season, but from 1907 to 1913, inclusive, he took part in forty-eight more battles than the renowned Kansan.

Christy Mathewson has fanned 1,137 men in the last seven campaigns and Nap Rucker 1,128. Eddie Plank, Connie Mack's great southpaw, almost reached the 1,000 mark in that time, 997 of his adversaries taking the count. Chief Bender claimed 864 victims, Howard Cunniff 804, Jack Coombs 784, Mordecai Brown 747, Leon Ames 745, George Mullin 704, Harry White 628, Ed Reulbach 603 and George Wiltse 580.

Johnson's average of strikeouts a game from 1907 to 1913, inclusive, has been 5.41. Ed Walsh's figures being 4.38 and Chief Bender's 4.02. Only two of the men mentioned have averaged more than 200 strikeouts a campaign, the pair being Johnson and Walsh. The easterner's average is 398, the westerner's 201. Ranking third on this

Photos by American Press Association.

Ed Walsh (above) and Walter Johnson. basis is Christy Mathewson, with 162. Walsh has been the busiest toiler from 1907 to 1913, inclusive, with "Big Six" next in line.

Here are the totals of strikeouts piled up by the fourteen major league hurlers from 1907 to 1913, inclusive:

	Games	Strike-outs	Aver. per game
Johnson, Senators	273	1,458	5.34
Walsh, White Sox	321	1,405	4.38
Mathewson, Giants	309	1,137	3.72
Rucker, Superbas	292	1,128	3.86

Crew Coaches Discuss Four Mile Race

AMERICAN college crew coaches are hopelessly divided over shortening boat races from four to three miles. Guy Nickalls, Yale—A short race does a man more harm than a long race. The mile and one-half race at Henley does the oarsmen more harm than the four and one-quarter mile race at Putney.

James Rice, Columbia—I do not believe in a four mile race for college crews, and I am heartily in favor of the race for junior oared university crews in place of the old four oared race. It is not right to have mere boys train down for such a race in the short period of time that we in America give to rowing.

James Ten Eyck, Syracuse—There is no danger of serious injury to an oarsman who takes part in a four mile race provided he is a sound man and is in good health on race days.

George Epler, Wisconsin—I think the three mile race would answer all purposes for which it is intended and at the same time eliminate some of the objections to rowing.

Vivian Nickalls, University of Pennsylvania—I would just as soon have a three mile race, but I am afraid that the cry would go up for a two, then for a one mile race if this change were carried out. If they will sign up for twenty years for a three mile race, then I'll agree.

Dr. Spaeth, Princeton—I have always been opposed to the four mile race for Princeton. There may be less harm in the longer race for those colleges which can practice for the full distance on their home course, but I do not believe in spending so much time and money to send crews away for practice.

F. L. Guerna, Leland Stanford—There is no reason for adhering to the four mile distance, which is admittedly a greater physical strain to the oarsmen, unless its continuation means benefits that do not attend the three mile race.

Charles Courtney, Cornell—I don't believe in a four mile race. I never did, and I am unalterably opposed to it. H. B. Conliffe, Washington—The distance has nothing to do with it.

NET MATCH DATES CHANGED.

NINE new lawn tennis tournaments and the same number of changes in dates previously awarded have been announced by Edwin F. Torrey, secretary of the United States National Lawn Tennis association.

Of the new tournaments the doubles championships of western Pennsylvania scheduled for the Altoona Cricket club in August and the award of February and March dates for the national indoor championship for men and women at the Seventh regiment army in New York are important.

PRINCETON TO HAVE STADIUM

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made by President Hibben of Princeton university that Edgar Palmer of Rye, N. Y., a graduate of the class of 1903 has offered to build a stadium and present it to the university for use of the athletic association in time to be used for the Yale football game next fall.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

LARGE ADVANCE IN COTTON BEARS HAD THE ADVANTAGE UNEVEN STOCK MARKET

Notwithstanding Big Advance of the Past Two Weeks Higher Prices Were Established.

New York, June 1.—Notwithstanding the big advance of the past two or three weeks still higher prices were established in the cotton market after the publication of the government's crop report today with October and December contracts selling above 13 cents for the first time this season. Heavy realizing was encountered but was absorbed on comparatively moderate reactions and the market closed steady at a net gain of 22 to 27 points, as compared with the final quotations on Friday.

There was an opening advance of 8 to 13 points owing to the failure of the weather map to show any material improvement in the conditions over the two day adjournment and prices sold some 17 to 22 points net higher before the official conditions figures were issued. The private reports of last week had prepared the trade for an unfavorable showing, but the actual statement indicating a condition of only 74.3 per cent. as of May 25th, proved even more bullish than anticipated and evidence brought in buying orders from all directions.

It was a holiday in the Liverpool market and in most European circles but some cables orders were received while there was active buying by local and Southern interests and a considerable demand from two or three of the large spot houses. Active sold 30 to 44 points net higher in consequence, with December contracts touching 13.10. Reactions of 10 or 12 points followed under heavy profit-taking. Very bullish operations were expressed on the day of the official condition report indicating that the start of the crop was fully 6 per cent. under the average and with but two exceptions the most unfavorable reported for the past 20 years while buyers pointed out that weather conditions have remained unfavorable over a good part of the belt since the government data were compiled.

Hold National Conventions in Asheville in September.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young, just back from Asheville, where he went to make preliminary arrangements for the meeting of the National convention of Insurance Commissioners and the Fire Marshals' Association of America there in September, says the hotel managers and the people generally manifested the keenest interest and that the indications are for a most enjoyable and successful session. The insurance commissioners will be in session September 15th to 18th, and the fire marshals September 11th and 12th. There will be about 350 people for the two conventions.

PROBABLY FATALITY SHOT.

Row at a "Singing" in Granville County Sunday.

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—Robert Pearce was probably fatally shot Sunday by Lehman Allen at Woodland Chapel, Granville county, where a "vocal union" or singing school was in progress, and is being treated in the Wake Forest hospital. The row started over a game of cards in the grove, it is said. Allen is a Wake county man, a well known young farmer of New Light township. The shooting is claimed to have been in self defense. The particulars are not known here. The Granville authorities are investigating.

MISSOURI PACIFIC RESCUED.

From Its Difficulties at The Eleventh Hour—Will Make Exchange.

New York, June 1.—The Missouri Pacific railway was rescued from its difficulties at the eleventh hour today when it was officially announced that the plan to exchange $25,000,000 of three year five per cent. notes, expiring on this date, for like amount of one year 6 per cent. notes had been declared "definitive."

There was a qualifying clause to the arrangement, however, inasmuch as the final date of extension was set forward to June 5th. It is understood that the estate of Jay Gould and Speyer & Company, the road's bankers, virtually have agreed to purchase the notes, estimated at between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000 of those who refused to grant an extension.

Teachers for Warsaw Schools Chosen for Next Year.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., June 1.—The board of directors of the Warsaw Graded and High Schools have re-elected the entire faculty who had charge of the schools the past year, with only three exceptions. Miss Hunter, of Elliott, will succeed Miss Edwards as teacher of the sixth grade; Miss Paige Fryar succeeds Miss Burrows as teacher in the eighth and ninth grades, and Mr. Sinks, of Chapel Hill, comes as principal, succeeding Mr. Edwards.

Spartanburg S. C., June 1.—Captain John W. Carle, prominent citizen and Confederate Veteran, died here today. He was 87 years old.

Missouri Pacific Affairs Hung Like a Cloud Over Stock Exchange Yesterday.

New York, June 1.—Missouri Pacific affairs hung like a cloud over today's dull and uneven stock market. This being the final day for action regarding the $25,000,000 note extension plan, unusual interest attached to the situation because of its relation to other properties similarly involved.

The stock fluctuated feverishly and the 4 per cent bonds were strong, but the balance of the list moved sluggishly within narrow limits. There were other deterrent factors, such as another gold export engagement, the action of the United States Senate in referring an inquiry into New York Central to the inter-State Commerce Commission, another statement from the White House wherein the adverse state of general trade was assigned in part to the failure of the railroads to buy equipment and a variety of railroad earnings most of which were regarded as favorable. London and Paris were again observing holidays so the local market derived no impulse from those centers. The resignation of the French cabinet occasioned no surprise.

Money brokers reported no change from the recent dull monetary conditions, due to the light demand.

The bond market was steady, but the only feature was Missouri Pacific where issues rose and held their gains. Total sales, par value, were $1,758,000. United States registered 2s declined 1-8 per cent on call.

MR. W. P. STACY SPEAKS.

Orator of Commencement of Tarboro High School.

Tarboro, N. C., June 1.—Mr. W. P. Stacy was the orator at the commencement exercises of the Tarboro high school held in the school building Friday night. Mr. Stacy, who is a prominent young attorney of Wilmington, spoke on the subject "Essentials of Citizenship," and his address was one that appealed to all.

Diplomas were awarded by Mr. R. G. Kittrell to the following: Misses Eva Pridden, Susie Webb, Lillian Walston and Robert Harlow, Arthur Barlow and Nicholas Constantine.

CROPS GOOD IN HALIFAX.

Cotton and Peanuts Are Exceptionally Fine.

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—Col. J. Brynne Grimes, Secretary of State, just back from Halifax county, says the cotton and peanut crops in that section are exceptionally fine, the drought conditions not having hurt either as yet. He delivered an address at Scotland Neck Saturday.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Premier Carrier of the South.

CHANGE IN WINSTON-SALEM-RALEIGH PULLMAN CAR LINE.

Effective Friday, June 12, 1914, the present Winston-Salem-Raleigh Pullman Car Line will be changed to Winston-Salem - Beaufort - Morehead City Pullman Car Line for the Summer Season, and will continue in effect until Saturday, August 22, 1914.

For further information, reservations, etc., communicate with J. O. JONES, Traveling Passenger Agent, Raleigh, N. C.

CROPS IN WEST SUFFERING.

Dry Weather in the Mountains Rather Distressing.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—Mr. A. Cannon, of Henderson county, here for the semi-annual meeting of the State Board of Agriculture this week, says that the crops in his section are suffering greatly for rain, but that there is still good chance for good crops if the drought breaks any time soon. The fruit crop, he says, looks like about a 50 per cent yield in his section. He predicts, however, that the general yield and profit to the farmer will be as much as if the yield was twice as large, through finer quality of the fruit and higher prices that will be realized.
